Data Protection Act 1998

Under the Data Protection Act 1998 we, the Waltham Forest Volunteer Centre ('the Centre'), are obliged to obtain your consent if we want to store or process certain types of information about you. We cannot process your application or adequately identify vacancies for you without storing and processing this kind of information, so please read the following paragraphs and sign below to indicate your consent:

The information you give us either on your application form or subsequently will be stored and processed whether or not we succeed in finding an organisation or placement to refer you to.

Sensitive information e.g. information about gender, disability and ethnic origin will only be used for Centre staff and volunteers for the purposes of equal opportunities monitoring, and it will not be accessible to organisations or people outside the Centre. We will store data relating to you for up to 6 years. After that any information, which is capable of identifying you, will be destroyed.

We may process data relating to you for the purposes of statistical monitoring, strategic planning, publicity, fund raising or campaigning and we may disclose statistics derived from data relating to you to other bodies in connection with any of these purposes, but we will keep strictly confidential your name and address and any other details which identify you unless we have your express permission to disclose them.

Please sign below to confirm that you have read this information and consent to our use of any information you give us for the purposes we have specified.

We may contact you to advise you of new opportunities and other things we are doing. If you do not wish to be contacted or included in any mailing list held by the Centre – please tick
